大分県立美術館で開催!

This exhibition features swords made by Japanese traditional technique. Sword symbolizes spirit of warrior, and its increasing popularity reflects the importance of its particular beauty. The exhibition includes the masterpiece in Japan as well as Oita's local swords which were made for practical use. In addition, we display the accessory of sword like metal ring and other metalworks from Meiji period which gained international acclaim. The exhibition provides the opportunity to get in touch with traditional aesthetics.

•Period September 27 - October 22

Focusing on Utagawa School, this exhibition surveys variety of Ukiyo-e print beloved by the public as it shows lifestyle in Edo period. With the hypothesis that Toyoharu Utagawa, the founder of Utagawa School, might be considered originally from Usuki, the exhibition introduces Toyoharu's successors such as Toyokuni, Toyohiro, Hiroshige, and Kuniyoshi, as well as the competitive Hokusai. The works vary from portraits of beautiful women, Ukie with Western perspective, and other interesting traits by Ukiyo-e masters.
